A spacious and elegant 1920's era home centrally located in Abingdon's Historic District. Walk to Barter Theatre, restaurants and shops. Our Inn offers guests the ambiance of a private home setting with luxurious comfort and southern hospitality. The large parlors, open sitting areas and library are wonderful spaces to enjoy a lifelong collection of European and American antiques. A large wrap-around porch with swing and rocking chairs draws you outside to relax and enjoy the beautiful gardens and roses. Our air-conditioned Inn is open year round. Seven guest rooms, king and queen size beds, private modern baths, whirlpools, telephones, and many amenities to ensure a comfortable and memorable visit. Guest rooms are furnished with antiques and traditional reproductions. The Carriage House has ground-level guest rooms with private entry foyer, wet bar and refrigerator. Complimentary beverages and snacks are available. A gourmet breakfast is served each morning.

Take a walk along the stone pathway. Enjoy our English style rose and perennial garden. An assortment of seasonal flora provide year-round color.

Specials, Weekend and Barter Theatre Packages are available. Walk to Barter Theatre, Shopping, Virginia Creeper Trail and Restaurants.
